Box Office Assistance

As a small, volunteer-driven community theatre, we do not currently offer in person box office hours, door ticket sales or box office assistance by phone. Subject to availability, tickets may be purchased securely online at any time including right up until showtime. Please plan ahead as latecomers will not be admitted until intermission, subject to availability. If you need assistance, please email us at boxoffice@carrollwoodplayers.org

All sales are final. We regret we are unable to refund any tickets unless you purchased the optional ticket insurance at the time you purchased the tickets.

Seating

Individual seating for all performances and events is general admission/open seating unless otherwise indicated at time of purchase.

Young Children/Lap Children: Please note, we do not admit young children under the age of 5 unless otherwise stated for appropriate productions. All audience members, regardless of age, must have their own seat and must have a paid ticket. For the comfort of all patrons, we do not allow children to sit on laps.

Accessible seating is available on a limited basis for disabled patrons. Please indicate any special needs at time of purchase, or email boxoffice@carrollwoodplayers.org to request accessible seating.

PLEASE NOTE: Your seat is only guaranteed until showtime. We reserve the right to resell seats not claimed by showtime, and we regret we are unable to refund unused tickets.

Location

Carrollwood Players Theatre (Black Box and Mainstage) is located at 4333 Gunn Highway, Tampa, FL 33618, in Plantation Plaza near the intersection of Gunn Highway and Mullis City Way.

Please Arrive On Time

Please be prompt! Our performance spaces are dark and wonderfully intimate. For your safety and the comfort of other patrons and our performers, latecomers are not guaranteed admission and will be seated at intermission subject to management discretion and subject to availability.

If you arrive late and we are not able to seat you at intermission or you choose not to wait, there are no refunds.

Doors open 30 minutes before show time.

Theatre Etiquette

Live theatre is a unique and wonderful experience that requires special attention to manners and etiquette. Disruptive audience members can ruin the experience for both the performers and others in the audience.

We invite you to laugh, cry, cheer and applaud during the performance, but please save any conversations until after the show.

Please silence and put away all electronic devices before the performance begins.

Please remain seated during the performance.

Photography and videography during the performance is strictly prohibited.

Please note that we reserve the right to refuse admission or service to any disruptive or abusive audience member and that all tickets are non-refundable unless you purchased ticket insurance at the time you purchased your tickets.

Intermission and Concessions

Most performances include a fifteen-minute intermission. Our concession stand is open before performances and during intermission and features a variety of sweet and salty snacks, soft drinks, coffee and tea, beer and wine.

Dress

We recommend smart casual attire.
